

Strategy & Finance& Proposition

1. Who is your target customer?

2. What is your strategy?

3. Explain your proposition and why it offers value to the consumer? Compare to similar service providers? What you will be doing different to other service provider.

4. What does success look like?

5. What research have you done to back up your thinking?

6. How are you ensuring competitive advantage? In terms of technology and new idea?

7. What is your Go to Market strategy? How you are planning to build your customer base? It is very crowded market place, why customer will come to your site? What is the attraction to keep the customer revisiting your site.

Monetisation

8. How will you make money? Explain your revenue and cost model including seed capital, start-up cost, ongoing operational cost. What is current valuation (valuation done by 3rd party valuers from city of London) of the company today.

How much equity you are proising for the Investment? What role the investor plan in the company? Full business plan for next 5 years? Provide all the information related to calculation.

9. What margins do you expect to enjoy next 5 years?

10. When exploring revenue models what other brands companies did you evaluate?

11. What are your plans for revenue diversification in the long term? Need to added to 5 year business plan.

12. How will you drive loyalty and repeat purchase?

Scaling up Business

13. How do you plan to scale the business?

14. How will your organisation grow and change over time to meet growth demands?

15. How will you scale without proportionally scaling headcount?

16. What capabilities do you need to focus on to grow?

17. Will you be in need of partnerships and if so what are they and how will you integrate?

18. What does your product, people and process roadmap look like for the next 12–18 months?

Organisation & Talent

19. What roles / teams do you need to create in the medium to long term?

Risk Assessment

20. What risks have you identified and how do you plan to mitigate?